Enriching Lives through Equine Assisted Activities and Therapies

Children of all ages and abilities can enjoy a fun and educational day camp experience at New Horizon Ranch. Campers will develop a broader knowledge of horses in a safe, fun and challenging environment that will encourage problem solving, communication and leadership skills while developing positive self-image. NHR offers the benefits of a small camp size, PATH certified professional instructors, EAGALA trained facilitators and safe, well-trained horses. Choose from a variety of options to fit your campers needs.

Camp Activities include:

- ★ Grooming, saddling and riding
- ★ Daily care of horses
- ★ Experiential learning activities that foster character skills
- ★ Horsemanship activities
- ★ Fun & creative art activities
- ★ Learning horse anatomy, breeds, nutrition and first aid
- ★ FINAL DAY OF EACH CAMP WILL CLOSE WITH A "PONY PARADE" a chance for campers to show parents, grandparents or friends all they learned!

EVERY CHILD LOVES SUMMER CAMP
AND WE CAN ACCOMMODATE CHILDREN
WITH TYPICAL OR SPECIAL NEEDS*

ALL Abilities Horse Day Camp

Horse Camp is an integrated experience designed to provide campers with special needs and campers with typical needs the chance to bond over their mutual love of horses and their desire to learn more.

Horse Camp is an excellent opportunity to gain self-confidence, improve communication and problem solving skills, learn basic riding skills, as well as experience hands on horsemanship, and horse care in a safe, fun and friendly camp atmosphere! Camp is designed for boys and girls of all abilities, ages 5 and up with beginning to intermediate riding skills.

Campers with disabilities must be able to feed themselves and use the restroom without assistance or else be accompanied by caregiver. They also must be cleared by a licensed physician to participate in equine activities.*
